GUEST LECTURE

SUBJECT: 'SWOC ANALYSIS', DR. ASHOK THORAT.

Date: 03/10/2017

The Chief guest of the program wished good luck to all the students. He spoke on the importance of English in the life of students. Every day students should practice at least half an hour for improving the skills in reading, writing, listening and speaking in English. Students hailed from rural areas must be confident in speaking English. They must concentrate on their aims. Sir shared his own life time experiences. Also he mentioned that his son passed BCom from BMCC has become successful businessman. It is just because of the dedication and the hard work. There was the overwhelming response for the Guest lecture. Ex-Principal of Willingdon College, Sangli, Dr. Harishchandra Nirmale introduced the chief guest. HOD, BMCC English Department Dr. Suneeta H. Nirmale felicitate the Chief Guest.

ELOCUTION COMPETITION

Above mentioned subjects were thought provoking and were giving modern touch to shape students personality. It reflects the facts and findings from the society. The subjects were helping to improve the understanding of the students towards the social problems and the society as whole. These subjects are dear to them, very near to their reach, sources are readily available for them.

Judge of program Mr. Sajay Salve, Asst. Librarian BMCC. advised them in following words, he said, "Learning English is the need of the hour. It is the basic requirement of today's generation. In our college we have observed that the students hailed from villages and outskirt areas of the city are basically lacking behind in speaking, reading and writing English language. It is our small
